

Our Wine Bar was created as a place to share our love of both great food and wine.

Consistent with our philosophy on Extra Virgin Olive Oil, we hand-select only the finest wines and beers to share with you.

craft beers

1. "Grandpa Tractor" Dortmund-Style Export Lager, Barley Forge Brewing, Costa Mesa CA

This nearly extinct style of beer is our replacement for a classic pilsner. Aromas of fresh-cut hay and shortbread cookies compliment a light malty flavor and a mild hop profile. Subtly sweet and crisp, this beer will leave you begging for another sip.

ABV Size Price

2. "Blue Star" American Wheat Beer, North Coast Brewing Co., Fort Bragg CA

Hailing from foggy Fort Bragg, CA this American Style wheat beer is unfiltered and playfully effervescent. Mild aromas of banana and baked bread accompany subtle citrus sensations that will boogie across your palate!

3. ".394" Pale Ale, Alesmith Brewing Company, San Diego CA

Brewed with direct input from Tony Gwynn, this ale is a tribute to the highest single-season batting average he set back in 1994. An initially intense citrus hopiness settles into a mellow floral finish. A portion of the proceeds are donated to the Tony and Alicia Gwynn Foundation.

4. "Blazing World" American Amber Ale, Modern Times Beer, San Diego CA

"Blazing World" is all about the hops. Brewed with Nelson Sauvin, Simcoe and Mosaic hops, this beer boasts a complex blend of piney and earthy flavors with just enough malt to provide a sweet, stable finish.

5. "Windy Hill" New England Style India Pale Ale, Mikkeller, San Diego

A Dry-hopped IPA brewed in San Diego using Simcoe and Mosaic hops with a distinctly hazy appearance in the glass and fresh floral and pine notes on the nose. This easy to drink brew has just the right amount of bitterness balanced by the fresh citrus flavors of this not overly hopped IPA. 91 points Beer Advocate

8. "Oro De Calabaza" Biere De Garde, Jolly Pumpkin Artisan Ales, Dexter MI

Brewed in the Franco-Belgian tradition of strong golden ales, this delicate sour is spicy and peppery with a gentle hop bouquet and beguiling influence of wild yeast.

8% 12 oz 12.00

9. "Gingergrass" Hard Cider, Golden State Cider, Sebastopol, CA

This effervescent delight is more than your average cider. Bold aromatics of ginger spice and zesty lemon accent the subtle sweetness of the California Apples, which work in tandem to create a crisp, balanced finish.
